MAKE YOURSELF CLEAR

Organizations bleed time and money because of poor communication skills. People have a habit of figuring things out in their heads, and then presenting their conclusions as finished products. Since everyone else wasn’t involved in the inner-dialog, what gets shared is generally divorced from proper context. Misunderstandings ensue.

BE BETTER UNDERSTOOD

Communicate, an approximately 150-minute course in Collaborant’s Work Together Series, teaches a simple method for communicating with others clearly, calmly, and effectively.

UNDERSTAND BETTER

Participants will also learn to coax others to communicate more effectively. It’s a proverbial win/win. Individual licenses and guidebooks start at $39. For more information call 801-438-4500 or visit www.collaborant.com.
THERE IS A BETTER WAY TO COMMUNICATE

Companies spend millions of dollars on better communication technologies, but often forget to invest in their communicators. The result is people all over the world miscommunicating at the speed of light.
